The 1st annual OIPRC Injury Prevention Forum will take place on Wednesday, March 3rd, 2010 at North York Memorial Hall in Toronto.

“Seniors Fall Prevention”

Key note speakers will include:

- Dr. Vicki Scott, British Columbia’s Senior Advisor on Falls & Injury Prevention
- Lynda McPhee, Education Coordinator for the Alberta Centre for Injury Control & Research
- A representative from the seniors’ fall prevention initiative in Nova Scotia’s Department of Health Promotion and Protection
- A representative from the Stay on your Feet Program in Kingston
- Representatives from various fall prevention initiatives throughout Ontario

This event will provide numerous opportunities for learning and engaging various public health practitioners, LHIN members and government workers on the issue of Seniors’ Fall Prevention strategies and programming. Each presentation will encompass the underlying research, the implementation, policy-making implications and next steps.

This event is brought to you by the Ontario Injury Prevention Resource Centre in partnership with the Ontario Neurotrauma Foundation and the Ontario Public Health Association. Support also provided by the Ontario Ministry of Health Promotion.
